Thoughts behind Alternative WEPL Structure 1:

1. WEPL would administer top 2 tiers of league Cricket at 1st and 2nd XI level. All teams below this level would be placed in to respective feeder leagues.
2. There would be two relegations from Premier 1 and one promotion and two relegations from each of the Premier 2 divisions.
3. The four feeder leagues would each provide one 1st XI and one 2nd XI to go in to WEPL Premier 2 1st XI and 2nd XI structures.
4. 12 team leagues meaning WEPL would extend its season by four matches.

Alternative WEPL Structure 2 (please note that teams have been placed in to the divisions on a hypothetical basis for the 2013 season based on 2012 positions)

Thoughts behind Alternative WEPL Structure 2:

1. WEPL would administer top 2 tiers of league Cricket at 1st XI level. All teams below this level would be placed in to respective feeder leagues.
2. There would be two relegations from Premier 1 and one promotion and two relegations from each of the Premier 2 divisions.
3. The four feeder leagues would each provide one 1st XI to go in to WEPL Premier 2 tier.
4. 12 team leagues meaning WEPL would extend its season by four matches.
5. All 2nd XIs will be placed in to feeder leagues meaning they will be able to find an appropriate level within WEPL or their feeder league and will have much reduced travel.
6. 2nd XIs would be able to play up to one division below their 1st XI but never in the same division. Therefore, a 2nd XI could play in Premier 2.

GCCL Considerations for clubs to note:

1. As placing new teams in to a feeder league structure is not an exact science, there may be accelerated promotion/relegation for first couple of seasons of any new structure.
2. The above feeder league structure is only intended as a guide to the process that the league would undertake. This is because teams will obviously be different by 2015 and the number of teams coming down from WEPL varies from season to season.
3. Red denotes teams that were in WEPL structure in 2012 and would be new to the hypothetical feeder league structure for 2013.

SCCL Considerations for clubs to note:

1. As placing new teams in to a feeder league structure is not an exact science, there may be accelerated promotion/relegation for first couple of seasons of any new structure.
2. The above feeder league structure is only intended as a guide to the process that the league would undertake. This is because teams will obviously be different by 2015 and the number of teams coming down from WEPL varies from season to season.
3. Red denotes teams that were in WEPL structure in 2012 and would be new to the hypothetical feeder league structure for 2013.

WCCL Considerations for clubs to note:

1. As placing new teams in to a feeder league structure is not an exact science, there may be accelerated promotion/relegation for first couple of seasons of any new structure.
2. The above feeder league structure is only intended as a guide to the process that the league would undertake. This is because teams will obviously be different by 2015 and the number of teams coming down from WEPL varies from season to season.
3. Relegation of Wiltshire clubs throughout the WEPL structure in 2012 was quite large which presents a slightly skewed picture for the hypothetical 2013 structure compared to normal practice.
4. Red denotes teams that were in WEPL structure in 2012 and would be new to the hypothetical feeder league structure for 2013.
